SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

The friends of Mr. W. D. Rhoad, who has been suffering with a very bad foot, are glad to see him out again after being confined to his home for a week.

Miss Pauline Cook, daughter of Mr. J. E. Cook, has been notified of her appointment to a scholarship to Winthrop college from Bamberg county. Miss Cook expects to leave for Winthrop within the next few days.

Mr. Paul Whitaker, on his rounds, stopped over in Newberry to spend a few days here this week. He has friends in this city, not alone because of his family connections, but from the fact that among his other qualifications he possesses the happy gift of song which pleases.—Newberry Herald and News.

Capt. W. W. Taylor has resigned from the local board of health, and the city council has appointed Dr. Vance W. Brabham to fill his term. Dr. Brabham is a most excellent selection and the city is fortunate in securing his services.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat.

Messrs. Mayfield and Free have been advised of a decision of the supreme court reversing the lower court in the case of the Savannah Chemical company versus D. P. Johnson and James A. Willis. The lower court granted a non-suit on a motion by counsel for the defendants.

Mr. Clarence Guess, son of Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Guess, formerly of Ehrhardt, was married last Wednesday afternoon to Miss Helen Fitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Fitts, of Clio. Mr. Guess is well known to a large circle of friends in this county, who will be interested to learn of his wedding.

The Fairfax high school opened Monday with a large attendance. Chairman J. Emil Johnson delivered an address to the patrons and pupils. The teachers for the coming year are: R. E. Kenny, principal; Misses Myrtle Epting, Eulis Padgett, Louise Durrant, Alma Knight and Grace Rickenbaker, assistants.—Barnwell Sentinel.

There will be services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening at 11:15 and 8 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Jonas Barclay. There will be communion at the morning service. The public generally is cordially invited to both services, and all members are urgently requested to be present.

Poured Out Booze.

Monday Sheriff Ray poured out a quantity of whiskey and so-called cider. Six pints of whiskey confiscated from one alleged tiger were destroyed, a gallon jug of "Wino," captured from another was likewise poured out, and a twenty-gallon keg of the same concoction taken from another party was committed to the ground.

Missionary Announcement.

The women of the missionary society of the Methodist church of this place are invited and urged to attend the September meeting, at the church, on Tuesday next, at 4:30 o'clock.

Any person who may desire to unite with us will be heartily welcomed. Visitors, there is a warm welcome awaiting you!

We want to do the best year's work ever this year. This is possible if we will work, pray, cooperate—yea, if we will unstintedly consecrate ourselves to Christ, who commissioned you and I to be missionaries.

Again, we ask that each officer and each member be in her place with "a mind to work." The fall season is on; let us take a fresh grip on life and its service to our fellowman. Out of gratitude to God for his love-gift to the world, let us bring ourselves and place our lives on the altar of service.

RECORDING SECRETARY.

Miss Kearse Entertains.

Last Saturday evening Miss Claire Kearse entertained a few of her friends. Those present were: Misses Mamie, Evelyn and Bessie Kirkland, Laura and Mamie McMillan and Reba Williams; Messrs. Frankie and Claude Kirkland, Grady and Elgin McMillan and Copeland Zeigler.

The games for the evening were progressive rook and "Consequence," the latter being lively and witty, was fully enjoyed by all.

Miss Kearse attended Winthrop college last year and expects to return again this fall. We all wish her a most successful school term. All present went away voting a pleasant evening indeed "KUTIE."

Manning Forces Organized.

The handsome vote given Richard I. Manning Tuesday was the result of thoroughly organized effort throughout this county. Mr. C. F. Rizer was the Manning organizer for Bamberg county. Last Wednesday Mr. Rizer got busy and held a conference with other Manning leaders in the county. As a result of this conference, a meeting was held Wednesday night, at which was present representative citizens from Olar, Denmark, Ehrhardt and Bamberg. A central committee, composed of Messrs. E. C. Bruce, of Bamberg; W. B. Chitty, of Olar; M. K. Zorn, of Denmark, and Dr. J. H. Roberts, of Ehrhardt, was elected. As sub-committees under the central committee, workers were appointed for each voting precinct in this county. The duty of these sub-committees was to see that every possible Manning supporter was brought to the polls to vote. The efficient work of these gentlemen is evidenced by the magnificent vote Bamberg county gave to the governor. While it was necessary in many counties to raise funds by popular subscription to pay the necessary expenses of the Manning campaign for the second primary, this was not needed in Bamberg county. The various committees were offered the use of as many automobiles by patriotic citizens as were necessary to carry out the plan of campaigning.

The Denmark committee volunteered to take care of Lees and Hightower's Mill, in addition to the home box; the Olar committee looked after Colston and Govan; Ehrhardt attended to Kears and Clear Pond, while the Bamberg local committee provided helpers for Midway, Farrells, and Hunter's Chapel. Excellent local committees were secured for every box in the county, men who had only the interest of the State at heart, who worked incessantly without pay or compensation in any way, other than the hopes and purposes of continuing for the grand old Palmetto State good government and a regime pledged to the enforcement of all laws equally in every part of the State. The various gentlemen—and they are too numerous to mention—who helped to roll up such a large vote for Governor Manning are due the thanks of the people of the county and State generally.

Home Demonstration Notes.

The first contribution to the prize fund for club girls was sent by the Bamberg Banking company the second by the Citizens Exchange Bank, of Denmark.

The Home Demonstration club girls will have an exhibit in Bamberg immediately after the State fair. This will consist of canned products, preserves, jellies and breads. The women will exhibit also the prizes to be blue ribbons. The girls' prizes will be announced later.

The Home Demonstration club of Kears met on Friday, September 8th, Mrs. H. M. Brabham presiding, and Miss Cressie Breeland secretary. The lesson for the month, on textiles and clothing, was read, also a bulletin on fall and winter gardens. A general discussion of bread-making, yeasts and the different kinds of flour followed, and many helpful suggestions were given. New members were enrolled, and the line of work for another year was discussed. Mrs. Faust demonstrated a home-made fireless cooker.

The Biggest Bale Yet.

Bamberg county seems to be famous for big bales of cotton. We have reported several very large bales, but Mr. L. P. McMillan (who, by the way, was not talking for publication) told us about the biggest one yet. His bale weighed 734 pounds, brought 15 5-8 cents a pound, netting Mr. McMillan exactly $114.68. The Herald will be glad to hear of any other large bales in the county, for it certainly gives us pleasure to say that a bale of cotton sold for a hundred dollars or more.

Graded School Opens.

The Bamberg graded school began its 1916-1917 session on Monday morning, with a very satisfactory enrollment. Appropriate exercises for the beginning of the session were held and very interesting and instructive talks were made by Drs. E. O. Watson and J. B. Black, and the pupils were classified. No lesson work was attempted for the day. The graded school has opened under most favorable auspices, and it is believed that the session will be one of the best the school has enjoyed. Prof. Allen and his able corps of assistants were all in their places Monday morning, and the students and teachers are now hard down to regular school work. During the summer some much needed improvements have been made to the school building, including the installation of septic tanks and a sewerage system.

Music; lifting the standard in Western division, Mrs. Tillman; report of committee on resolutions; report of committee on time and place; report of obituary committee; minutes; closing exercises.

Cradle-Roll Reception.

Delightfully informal was the party given by Mrs. W. D. Rhoad on Thursday afternoon complimentary to the members of the cradle roll of Trinity Methodist church. Chairs were arranged in the yard for the comfort of the mothers, where for some time they enjoyed animated conversation; while the babies were entertained by little Misses Lena Rhoad, Jane and Elsie Rice, in a small bungalow, furnished nicely with tables, chairs, dolls and other things which go to make a "play house." During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. C. J. S. Brooker.

When a member of the cradle roll is three years old, he or she is promoted to the primary department of the Sunday-school. Mrs. Rhoad, who has served faithfully for a number of years as superintendent of the cradle roll department, has, during that time, promoted many little ones, still her roll numbers thirty-five. She is ever on the alert for recruits. The roll is never on the decrease. The babies never fail to receive their birthday and Christmas cards. Every year since she has had this work in charge, a nice little sum has been sent to the Epworth orphanage through this department. No other department in the whole church is so full of possibilities. Mr. Talmage has truly said: "God has infinite resources, and He can give presents of great value, but when He wants to give the richest possible gift to a household, He looks around all the worlds and all the universe, and then gives a little child." The greatest present God ever gave our world He gave hundreds of years ago. In all ages God has honored childhood. He makes almost every picture a failure, unless there be a child playing on the floor, or looking through the window, or seated on the lap gazing into the face of the mother. It was to the cradle in which a child was laid, rocked by the waters of the Nile, that God called the attention of history. It was a child that Christ set in the midst of the squabbling disciples to teach humility. Now, mothers, our babies are God's gifts to us. Let us honor Him by training them for His service. Where is there a better place to begin than the cradle?—Contributed.

The North for Wilson.

H. M. Graham, Esq., returned a day or two ago from Philadelphia, where he went on professional business. Mr. Graham states that he found a strong sentiment in favor of Woodrow Wilson. The opinion seems to prevail, he stated, that although they are Republicans, it would not be safe to make a change at this time. Wilson, they feel, has handled the delicate problems that have confronted the nation during the past two years with wisdom and has carried the country safely through the crisis with Europe and Mexico, and that he is the man to continue to carry on the destinies of the United States.

School Opening At Branchville.

Branchville, Sept. 8.—The Branchville graded school will begin the fall term of the 1916-17 session on Monday, September 11. The opening is expected to be an auspicious one and a full enrollment is desired on the first day. There will be a short programme at the opening on Monday morning to which the patrons and friends of the school are invited.

Robert, the 8 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Berry died Sunday morning about 3 o'clock. The little fellow had been ill for some time. The funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday afternoon.

Carlisle Opens Wednesday.

Carlisle school will begin its 1916-1917 term on Wednesday, September 20th. The prospects are stated to be the brightest in the history of the school, and a large enrollment is expected on the opening day. The traveling representatives of the school have been much encouraged during the summer, and have every reason to hope for a record-breaking attendance the coming session. Facilities have been provided during the summer for a considerably larger number of pupils than usual. The H. J. Brabham hall has been remodelled and thoroughly renovated. The teachers and matrons are now making preparations for the beginning of the best session in the history of the school next week.

Court Convenes Monday.

The regular fall term of court will be convened in Bamberg next Monday. The term will last one week only and only criminal cases will be tried. Judge R. W. Memminger will preside. There are a number of interesting cases to be tried at this term, including several cases for violation of the prohibition law. Solicitor R. L. Gunter and Stenographer E. A. Brown are expected to be in their places as usual Monday morning.

Baptist Church.

Prayer meeting at the Baptist church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Subject: "The seven sayings on the cross—what are they and what do they teach?" Preaching Sunday morning. Subject: "Juniper trees along life's journey." Preaching Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Subject: "The making of a man." Wanted, a large company of young people, especially young men.

RICHES FOR THE RED MAN.

Annual Incomes of the Two Thousand Osage Indians.

The Osage Indians are the richest people in the world, and soon they are going to be richer, writes Thomas F. Logan, in Leslie's. Their wealth is registered at $20,000 per capita at the Indian office. Secretary Lane, of the interior department, recently gave his approval to new leases running for five years, whereby the Osage Indians rent their valuable oil lands in Oklahoma to some of the big oil companies. This will increase the average annual income of the two thousand Osage Indians from $600 to $1,000 per annum. The leases will cover about 680,000 acres. It is estimated that the annual income of the Osage tribe under the new leases will aggregate at least $2,500,000, in addition to the $3,233,000 received in cash at recent sales, as against about $500,000 heretofore received annually under the old leases, which expired last March.

IN THE PALMETTO STATE

SOME OCCURRENCES OF VARIOUS KINDS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

State News Boiled Down for Quick Reading.—Paragraphs About Men and Happenings.

An unknown party stole a Ford automobile from George Grant in Spartanburg Monday.

Claud Price, a white boy, 14 years old, was drowned in a pool near Greenville Monday, while in swimming.

Poindexter Page Carter, an artist of Columbia, was run over by an automobile and seriously injured in that city Friday.

Over 2,000,000 pounds of tobacco have been sold in Timmonsville this season at an average price of 16 cents per pound.

Rev. George P. White, pastor of the First Baptist church of Union, was married in that city last week to Mrs. Anna Clement McEachern.

John Cleveland, a negro chauffeur, was killed near Greenville early Monday morning when a large automobile which he was driving, turned turtle.

The new St. Paul's Methodist Sunday-school, of Orangeburg, was formally opened Sunday by Bishop James Atkins, of Waynesville, N. C.

W. S. Moore stabbed C. H. Peoples with an ice pick in Charleston Sunday. The two men fell out about politics. The wounded man will recover.

The town of Johnston will soon hold an election on the question of whether or not $50,000 shall be expended for a water and sewerage system.

John Madison DesChamps, a candidate for governor in the recent primary, announced that he has decided to join the Progressive party of South Carolina.

Gov. Manning has appointed Rev. John McSweeney, Jr., pastor of the Presbyterian church of Dillon, chaplain of the Second regiment, South Carolina National Guard. He will hold the rank of captain and will go to Fort Bliss, Texas, to join his regiment at once.

Alton Linder, a farmer who lived in the Cannon camp ground section of Spartanburg county, died at his home Saturday of "infantile paralysis." Mr. Linder was 34 years of age and is the oldest person known to have died of the disease in this State. He leaves a wife.

The holiday sale and feed stables in Dillon were destroyed by fire Saturday night. Several horses were burned to death and five automobiles housed in a garage adjoining the livery stable were also burned. The total loss aggregates several thousand dollars, partly covered by insurance.

AN APPRECIATION.

E. H. Sothern's Tribute to Charles and Dan Frohman.

"Why fear death? Death is only a beautiful adventure." Thus spoke Charles Frohman as he stood with three other passengers, his arms locked in theirs, upon the slanting deck of the Lusitania as she sank off the coast of Ireland, says Mr. Sothern, in the September Scribner's. At 2:30 p. m. on May 7, 1915, the vessel was torpedoed by a German submarine. Mr. Frohman could have had no hope of escape. He was probably wounded by the explosion, and one of his legs was permanently disabled from illness. He could not walk without the help of a cane.

At such a crisis a man's soul speaks and Charles Frohman's words illuminate his life and shed a radiance upon his death. God grant we may greet the inevitable hour in such wise when He shall strike for us! A man who can speak thus at such a moment can need no other epitaph.

When Charles and Daniel Frohman entered upon their careers as managers the business of the theatre was frequently conducted on a haphazard plan. If a venture succeeded all went well. In the event of failure the actors very often suffered loss. Any irresponsible person could take out a play and obtain time in various theatres. I have myself been a victim of such adventures. Owing greatly to the Frohman faculty for organization and fair dealing, theatrical affairs were soon conducted on a sounder basis. The Frohman word was as good as a bond to any man. This was Charles Frohman's especial pride.

Not Trained.

"Is dem you-all's chickens?" "Co'se dey's mah chickens. Whose do you s'pose dey is?" "Ah wasn't s'posin' nuffin' 'bout 'em; but Ah will say dat it's mighty lucky dat a chicken won't come runnin' an' waggin' its tail when its regular owner whistles, same as a dog."—St. Paul Express.

IS INDEED "CAR COMPLETE."

Roadside Motor Camp is Queerly Constructed and Equipped.

If you see what might be a land-going submarine or an amphibious shark, do not be startled. It probably is merely the "Car Complete and Roadside Camp" out for a trial before it starts tomorrow for the Pacific coast.

The hybrid automobile has a regulation Stutz chassis which carries a body built as nearly as possible like that of a motor boat, fitted with more than a hundred devices to make it the most completely equipped automobile that ever started across the continent. It carries a camping outfit for Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Law and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Mals, who will ride in it.

Instead of a radiator, the car complete has eight port holes in its battleship gray hood. In place of small front lights there are red and green lanterns at port and starboard. A ship's bell makes it sound like an auxiliary fire truck.

Wicker chairs, made originally for a motor boat, take the place of seats. And at the end of the long, slim body is a miniature propeller, merely decorative, and a flagstaff equipped with electric lights so that the flag is illuminated by night.

Tents, cots, pneumatic mattresses, and all the other essentials of a camping kit are packed on the running board. A bark, a bell and a whistle are the methods by which the car complete will clear the road. It has no ordinary wind shield, but a round pane of glass, like an immense goggle. When the car complete makes a sudden stop a lever is pressed and a red signal, like the block arm on a railway system, swings out to warn machines following.—New York World.

A Wee Bit Sane.

While a certain Scotch minister was conducting religious services in an asylum for the insane one of the inmates cried out wildly:

"I say, have we got to listen to this?"

The minister, surprised and confused, turned to the keeper and said: "Shall I stop speaking?"

The keeper replied: "No, no; gang along, gang along; that will not happen again. That man only has one lucid moment every seven years."—Christian Herald.

H. C. FOLK,
Master Bamberg County.
Sept. 13th, 1916.

TO THE PEOPLE OF BAMBERG COUNTY.

You have again elected me as one of your representatives to our State legislature by a vote for which any one might justly feel proud. I deem it an honor and a privilege to serve you in this capacity, and appreciate more than I can tell you the confidence you have expressed. Being cognizant of the trust imposed and the responsibility resting upon me as your representative, I pledge you my best service and express the hope that my every act may tend toward the betterment of mankind and the upbuilding of our county and State—this shall ever be my aim and purpose. Respectfully yours,

B. D. CARTER.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to express to the voters of Bamberg county my sincere thanks for the generous support given me in the recent primaries. I feel that I have made many friends, of whom I am proud, and for which I am truly grateful. R. P. BELLINGER.
